How is this for a rare property offering?
Here is a real opportunity to secure a 100* plus acre property, with a home, only a three* minute drive from one of the Sunshine Coast?s most popular and well known beaches. And importantly, while the property is in close proximity to everything a vibrant coastal town offers, the property is being sold only for what it is now ? a large lifestyle rural farm.
Nestled between Maroochydore and Noosa on the Northern Sunshine Coast and flanked by National Parks, the holidaying ?hot spot? of Coolum Beach is one of Queensland?s most popular day trip and holiday destinations, however has only a permanent population less than 8,000* (census 2011). Naturally the town is focused around its beach (internationally renowned as having one of the best surf breaks) and with its boardwalk, scenic esplanade, shopping areas, lively caf?s and Surf Club with patrolled beach. As there is no river to pollute the ocean at Coolum Beach like quite a few other beaches along the Suns
